

Tuesday, 01 April

18.30–19.00 Welcoming Words

PETER WILKITZKI
ZOE KONSTANTOPOULOU
PROF. DR. JOACHIM VOGEL

19.00–20.00 Keynote Speech

PROF. DR. OTTO TRIFFTERER
The Court in Danger? Future Perspectives for International Criminal Law and its Enforcement Mechanisms

20.00 Welcome Reception

Wednesday, 02 April

10.00–12.00 Substantive Int'l Criminal Law

PROF. DR. CARLOS EDUARDO A. JAPIASSÚ
International Crimes

PROF. DR. THOMAS WEIGEND
Command Responsibility

PROF. DR. LARISSA VAN DEN HERIK
Dictates of Reality: Accepting Corporate Criminal Responsibility for International Crimes

DR. MOHAMED ELEWA BADAR
Rethinking Mens Rea in the Rome Statute of the ICC in Light of the Lubanga Decision

PETER WILKITZKI
Moderator

14.00–15.30 Substantive Int'l Criminal Law

DR. BORIS BURGHARDT
Individual Criminal Responsibility and Modes Participation

MARC ENGELHART
Responsibility of Corporations for International Crimes?

TAMÁS HOFFMANN
Modifications of the Rome Statute on Non-Internnational Armed Conflicts in Light of the Potential Change of Customary International Law

ZOE KONSTANTOPOULOU
Moderator

15.45–17.15 Substantive Int'l Criminal Law

PROF. DR. LUCIANA BOITEUX RODRIGUES
The ICC and Drug Trafficking: a Possible Enlargement of the Court's Jurisdiction?

PAUL RABBAT
Terrorism as an International Crime?

DOV JACOBS
The Sheep in the Box: Aggression as an International Crime

ZOE KONSTANTOPOULOU
Moderator

21.00 Cocktailparty

Thursday, 03 April

10.00–12.00 Int'l Criminal Procedure

PROF. KANAKO TAKAYAMA
ICC Procedure and Comparative Law

PROF. DR. CARSTEN STAHN
Judicial Scrutiny of Prosecutorial Discretion

PETER ROBINSON
Suggestions from the Defence

FABIO MARIA GALIANI
The International Criminal Bar Association and its (Future) Role in and under the Rome Statute and the Rules of Procedure

PROF. DR. HANS-JÜRGEN KERNER
Moderator

14.00–15.30 Int'l Criminal Procedure

PROF. STEVEN BECKER
The Appearance of Impartiality: The Disqualification of Judges for Pre-elevation Activities and Opinions – the Tension between Qualification and Bias

DR. SABINE SWOBODA
The ICC Disclosure Regime - a Defence Perspective

FRANK ZIMMERMANN
Judicial Assistance and the Equality of Arms – to what Extent can the European Cooperation in Penal Matters Serve as Model for the Reviewed Statute?

ELS DE BUSSE
Moderator

18.00 Guided Tour through Tübingen

Friday, 04 April

10.00–12.00 Policy and Int'l Criminal Justice

PROF. DR. ZLATA DURDEVIC

Sovereignty v. International Criminal Justice: a National Security Exception to a State's Duty of International Cooperation

PROF. DR. ELMAR WEITEKAMP

Restorative Justice in the Context of Mass Victimization and Gross Human Rights Violations

CHRISTIAN RITSCHER

The German International Crimes Code

DR. KATALIN LIGETI

Moderator

14.00–15.30 Policy and Int'l Criminal Justice

ASTRID REISINGER CORACINI

The Rome Statute's Amendment Mechanisms at the First Review Conference

BJÖRN JESSE

The Rome Statute's Relative Significance and the Need for its Immanent Interpretation

ATHANASIOS CHOULIARAS

State Crimes and Individual Criminal Responsibility: Theoretical Inquiries and Practical Consequences

DR. CHRISTOPH BURCHARD

Moderator

15.45–17.15 Policy and Int'l Criminal Justice

JULIA GENEUSS

Interplay of National and International Jurisdictions: The German International Crimes Code

DAWN SEDMAN, PH.D.

International ne bis in idem

EMMANUELLE DE BOCK

Trials with Multiple Defendants

FREDERIKE VAN DE POLL

The Effectiveness of the International Atrocities Regime in Ending Impunity

DR. CHRISTOPH BURCHARD

Moderator

18.00–19.00 Concluding Remarks

PROF. DR. JOACHIM VOGEL

20.00 Farewell Dinner

Saturday, 05 April

10.00–13.00 Workshop for Young Penalists

Drafting of Recommendations

17.00 Castle Hohentübingen

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

AIDP

Young Penalists

Committee

Symposium in International Criminal Law
for Young Penalists

The Review Conference &
the Future of the ICC

TÜBINGEN, GERMANY
APRIL 1-4, 2008

FEIGEN · GRAF
Rechtsanwälte

Juristische
Gesellschaft
Tübingen e.V.